

Affordable Care Act glossary

New full-time employee (Permanent or Nonpermanent)	A newly hired employee who was determined by the employer, as of the date of hire, to be full-time and eligible for benefits
New variable-hour, part-time or seasonal employee	A newly hired employee who is not expected to be credited an average of 30 hours per week for the entire measurement period, as of the date of hire. Therefore, the employer cannot reasonably determine his eligibility for benefits as of the date of hire.
Ongoing employee	Any employee who has worked with an employer for an entire Standard Measurement Period
Plan year	January 1 to December 31
Applies to new variable-hour, part-time and seasonal employees
Initial Measurement Period	Begins the first of the month after the date of hire and ends 12 months later. The employer should review the employee's hours over the Initial Measurement Period to determine future eligibility for benefits.
Initial Administrative Period	Begins the day after the initial measurement period ends and ends the last day of the same month. The employer uses this time to review the employee's hours over the initial measurement period, and, if the employee is eligible, offers benefits to the employee the first of the following month.
Initial Stability Period	Begins the day after the Initial Administrative Period ends and lasts for 12 months. This is the period of time that an employee cannot lose eligibility for benefits regardless of the number of hours he works. If the employee is deemed eligible for coverage during the Initial Administrative Period, he remains eligible for 12 months as long as he remains employed by the employer.
Applies to all ongoing employees
Standard Measurement Period	Begins on October 4 and ends 12 months later, on October 3. The employer will review the employee's hours over the Standard Measurement Period to determine eligibility for the upcoming plan year.
Administrative Period	Begins on October 3 and ends December 31. This is the period of time an employer and the plan have to identify and enroll eligible individuals in coverage. Employers must offer coverage to eligible employees during the plan's open enrollment period, which ends October 31. PEBA uses the remainder of the Administrative Period to process enrollments to ensure employees have access to coverage at the beginning of the Stability Period.

Stability Period	Begins on January 1 and ends 12 months later on December 31. This is the period of time that an ongoing employee cannot lose eligibility for benefits regardless of the number of hours he works. If the employee is deemed eligible for coverage during the Administrative Period, he remains eligible for the entire plan year as long as he remains employed with the employer.
