

COBRA
2019

Important information

This presentation contains an abbreviated description of insurance benefits provided by or through PEBA. The plan of benefits documents and benefits contracts contain complete descriptions of the health and dental plans and all other insurance benefits. Their terms and conditions govern all health benefits offered by or through PEBA.

2

Important information

- This overview is not meant to serve as a comprehensive description of the insurance benefits offered by PEBA.
- More information can be found in the following:
 - Benefits Administrator Manual;
 - Insurance Benefits Guide; and
 - COBRA documents at <https://www.peba.sc.gov/iforms.html>.

3

COBRA

- Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act.
- Effective July 1, 1986.
- Prevents covered employees and their dependents from losing group health, dental, vision, and/or medical spending account coverage as a result of certain qualifying events.
- All employers participating in PEBA's insurance benefits are subject to COBRA, regardless of the number of employees.

5

Benefits administrator responsibilities

- Make eligible subscribers¹ and dependents aware of their COBRA rights and responsibilities.
- Offer COBRA coverage to qualified beneficiaries.
- Document your actions in the employee's file.

¹If an employee is determined to never have been eligible for coverage while employed, he and his dependents are not eligible for COBRA.

6

Qualified beneficiaries

7

Who is a qualified beneficiary?

- Individual eligible to continue coverage if coverage is lost due to qualifying event.
- Must be covered on day before qualifying event.
- Each beneficiary has independent rights to elect COBRA.

8

Who is a qualified beneficiary?

- Active and retired employees.
- Spouses and dependent children of employees or retirees.
- Newborns or children placed for adoption with the covered former employee or retiree.
 - If added to COBRA coverage within 31 days of birth or adoption, or during open enrollment.

9

Who is not a qualified beneficiary?

- Individuals not meeting the definition of qualified beneficiaries who are added as dependents onto a qualified beneficiary's coverage during open enrollment or because of a special eligibility situation.
- Newborn or adopted children placed with individual on COBRA who is not the covered former employee or retiree.
- Non-resident aliens with no source of income in U.S.

10

Qualified beneficiary example

- Single employee leaves employment on May 31, 2019, and elects COBRA for himself:
 - Employee is a qualified beneficiary
- Former employee gets married on November 1, 2019:
 - New spouse is not a qualified beneficiary
- Former employee dies December 12, 2019:
 - Spouse's coverage ends

11
